

in association with Audubon Mississippi
presents

MISSISSIPPI RIVER NATURE FESTIVAL

Tara Wildlife's Mississippi River Nature Festival affords outdoor enthusiasts outings to visit over 17,000 acres of managed lakes and forests, with opportunities to view Tara's abundant wildlife and migrating species of rare birds.

CLICK HERE TO VIEW THE SCHEDULE!

Aug. 25-26, 2007

Vicksburg, Mississippi
www.tarawildlife.com

SEE AND EXPERIENCE:

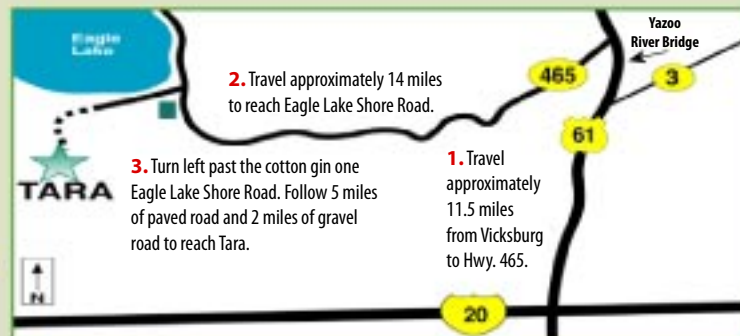

- Lush bottomland forests along 12 miles of the Mississippi River.
- Spectacular gatherings of Wood Storks, Roseate Spoonbills and other wading birds.
- Tara's Backyard Native Plant Garden which attracts hundreds of hummingbirds.
- Exhibits by the Mississippi Museum of Natural Science & hear renowned guest speakers.
 - Learn new skills at our outdoor photography workshops.

DAILY ADMISSION

- $5 per person; 12 and under free
- Mississippi River Tour: $20 per person; call to reserve a time slot
- Gates open at 8 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 25, and activities will run from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.
- Concessions will be available each day.

STORK & CORK WEEKEND PACKAGE AVAILABLE!
Click Here for the Registration Form.

www.tarawildlife.com

For Vicksburg accommodations, go to www.visitvicksburg.com
E-mail: tara@tarawildlife.com